

LIFE FORCE ENERGY PENDANT

ABOUT YOUR LIFE FORCE ENERGY PENDANT

Our stylish and unique handmade Life Force Energy Pendants radiate life force energy and subtle energy information fields to help support your wellness, health, healing and vitality. This pendant helps you maintain a proper subtle energy environment effortlessly. Our research has shown that our special alchemical Transition State Elements (TSE) combine their subtle energies and fields with those of the special type of glass used by our glass-art artisan. These enhanced fields can then interact with your own when you're wearing the pendant.

This pendant is conscious technology, therefore your intention and attention are very important keys in eliciting a more beneficial, fulfilling, effective and meaningful interaction with the information conveyed by the life force energy fields of each alchemical Transition State Element (TSE) used in your pendant.

This same intention/attention principle is ubiquitous to the universe as a whole. However, the transition states of the elements involved act as a bridge between the physical and non-physical realms to help make these life force energies and information much more available to living systems.

Single and multiple Transition State Elements (TSE) have been used in the crafting of these jewellery pieces.

In addition to the remarkable aspects of the alchemy involved, the craftsmanship in these pendants is quite exquisite and any owner can boast a unique stylish jewellery piece whilst maintaining their personal environment in the best possible way. They each come with EITHER a beautiful natural Egyptian leather cord that has a silver clasp, OR a lovely organic cotton cord with silver clasp. You can choose from 8 different designs as options.

PLEASE NOTE: these are individually handmade pendants. As such, your pendant(s) will have some variances in colour and pattern from what's shown in our photos.

USING YOUR LIFE FORCE ENERGY PENDANT

When you first get your Life Force Energy Pendant you can of course just unbox it and wear it as you would with any bit of jewellery. However, because this is actually a Conscious Tech Life Force Energy Pendant, we highly recommend that you begin more slowly, deliberately and consciously in order to establish deeper conscious intentions and connections with its field of energetic activity. Doing so will allow you to reap many more benefits over time, and is thus well worth the small amount of extra time and effort. Here are some suggestions we have to offer for how you might be able to go about this in a more conscious manner.

- Do a short ritual with your pendant to say hello and welcome it into your life force energy space.
- Consider whether giving the Being that your pendant represents a 'name' might be beneficial for you. Each Life Force Energy Pendant is in essence a type of living being. By giving it a name you will be empowered to better communicate with your Pendant-Being, and this can be quite helpful. It also lends a more personal touch to your interactions with your pendant, and this helps to strengthen the subtle energy connections being formed.
- Spend some time meditating with the pendant in your hands. Ask it to help you get clear as to the initial intentions you wish to have it help you achieve. You can also use this same process anytime that you feel the need to update or change your intentions.
- Endeavour to get to the point whereby you have your intentions clearly identified. Then whittle them down to their purest essence. Keep it simple with only one highly focused goal at a time.
- Now sit and meditate for a short bit with your pendant in your hands and communicate to it your clear, simple and highly focused intention. Ask your Pendant-Being to help you achieve that intention.

Now you're ready to wear your Life Force Pendant around your neck so it hangs on your chest.

Keep your clearly defined intention in mind as continually as you can. Learn to put your intention on the 'back channel' of your mind where the negative chatter will most often reside that so your intention replaces that chatter.

It can be helpful to keep a diary of your daily progress towards the goal that your intention represents. This way you can review what you've written every so often. In doing so, you'll be amazed at what insights and revelations come to you about your situation. Often times a whole new intention will be formed of these insights, and one by one the unfolding sequence of intentions eventually forms a strand of pearls that leads you to your ultimate goal!
